

Autism Resources

The RI-CART Resource Guide offers support for children, adults and families

Research findings published by RI-CART investigators

The Duke Center for Autism and Brain Development's COVID-19 Resources for individuals with ASD and their families

The Autism Science Foundation's Autism Toolkits cover a variety of topics for children and adults

Resources from Autism Speaks

Back-to-school resources from Understood, for families with kids who learn & think differently

Recorded webinars from the Rhode Island Parent Information Network

Small Steps Therapy, recommended by Alicia Ead, senior family support specialist at The Autism Project